Liza Wolff Francis Spoken Word

Liza Wolff-Francis was the 8th Poet Laureate of Carrboro, North Carolina from 2023–2025. She has an MFA in Creative Writing from Goddard College and an MSW from Smith College School for Social Work. She founded the Albuquerque non-profit Casa Fortaleza for Spanish-speaking sexual assault survivors and continues working there as Clinical Director. She also teaches creative writing workshops, and her prose and poetry have been widely published. Her poetry has been nominated for Best of the Net, and she has two poetry books: 4*8 hours down the shore* and a new collaborative poetry book written with Brenda Beardsley, sky they yearned to call mine, which was a semifinalist for the 2024 Donna Wolf Palacio prize.
