Robert Julyan poet

Bob Julyan is an Albuquerque writer and poet. He is best known for his non-fiction Place Names of New Mexico and for his debut novel, Sweeney, about a small town struggling to stay alive on the high plains of eastern New Mexico. Bob is musically challenged, but his two daughters, Megan and Robyn, are not and are known to audiences throughout New Mexico. So are their husbands, James Holland and Ben Tomkins. Bob has listened to Julyans/Hollands perform musically countless times, but this will be first time he's performed with them, not as a musician but as a poet.
