Johann Sebastian Bach (1685–1750)

I Adagio

II Fugue

Richard Wolfson poet

Richard Wolfson began writing after the death of his wife JoAnn, a poet, in 2004. Many of these poems come from dreams and shamanic journeys. He currently lives in Albuquerque with his second wife Vicki Bolen, an artist who collaborates with him on books, cards, and prints. His work can be seen at the Santa Fe Book Arts Group show at the Capitol Rotunda through December, in several Fixed and Free anthologies, as well as poetry books, Pen like a fine needle and When Gaia calls, who answers? Currently, he mixes comedy and poetry. He has been frequently featured onstage in Albuquerque and Santa Fe and has performed throughout the country from coast to coast. During the month of October 2015, he is featured in five events in Santa Fe and Albuquerque and will travel to Flagstaff Arizona for a comedy competition.
