Ishan Loomba Varsity piano

Fourteen-year-old Ishan Loomba discovered his love of music at a very young age, picking up familiar tunes at his toy piano and listening to everything from Celtic to Classical music. His passion for all types of music is one reason Ishan has been a Chatterphile for almost half his life, enjoying everything from the Baroque to the Modern.

Ishan gave his debut solo piano recital in 2009, and performed as a soloist with Chatter in 2012, the NMPHil in 2013 and again in 2015 as the Jackie McGehee Young Artist Competition winner. In 2015 he was a semi-finalist at the Kaufman International Piano Competition and a finalist in the Steinway International Concerto Competition.

Since 2011, Chatter Varsity has promoted and inspired young musical talent (ages 10-17) through solo and ensemble performance with Chatter's professional core musicians.

This performance is part of a series celebrating the 100th birthday of Chatter's piano :: Mason & Hamlin #AA23151

Paganini Etude No 2 in E-flat Major (Andantino capriccioso) (1851) Franz Liszt (1811-1886)

Barcarolle in F-sharp Major Opus 60 (1851) Frédéric Chopin (1810-1849)

Ebony 'Isis' Booth poet

A 2006 National Poetry Slam Champion, and recipient of Westword's Mastermind Award in Literary Arts for her work as hostess of Café Nuba, Ebony Isis Booth is committed to her work. Since relocating to Albuquerque in early 2015, Isis has continued to fuel her drive toward art-ivism as Programs & Communications Coordinator for Harwood Art Center while torching audiences as lead vocalist of the newly formed funk quartet, Boca Negra.
