Celebration of Silence :: Two Minutes

Lee Francis IV poet

Dr Lee Francis IV (Pueblo of Laguna) is the National Director of Wordcraft Circle of Native Writers and Storytellers, a 20-year-old organization dedicated to promoting the work and words of Native and Indigenous people throughout the world. In this position he has supported and mentored more than a hundred writers and storytellers. Dr Francis is an award winning performance poet and slam champion. He was a part of the 2006 Albuquerque City Slam Team and the 2008 College National Champion Slam Team. He's been performing for more than thirty years and is a highly regarded storyteller who has performed stories at numerous venues around the US. His work has appeared in multiple journals and anthologies, most recently, Yellow Medicine Review, Fall 2012. He is a proud resident of Albuquerque where he lives with his wife Liza Wolff-Francis (who appeared at Chatter Sunday on November 22), beautiful son, and crazy dog.
