Tanaya Winder poet

Tanaya Winder is a poet, writer, artist, and educator who was raised on the Southern Ute reservation in Ignacio, CO. An enrolled member of the Duckwater Shoshone Tribe, her background includes Southern Ute, Pyramid Lake Paiute, Navajo, and Black Heritages. A winner of the 2010 A Room of Her Own Foundation's Orlando prize in poetry, her work has appeared or is forthcoming in Cutthroat magazine, Adobe Walls, Superstition Review, Drunkenboat, and Kweli among others. Her debut poetry collection Words Like Love was published in September 2015 by West End Press. Tanaya is also the Director of the University of Colorado at Boulder's Upward Bound Program, which serves 103 Native American youth from eight states, 22 high schools, and eight reservations across the country. She created Dream Warriors Management consisting of several Indigenous artists who travel to perform concerts, run workshops, and teach empowerment and artistic skill sets. She created it to bring together different talented artists, speakers, and educators who embody the values of what it means to be a Dream Warrior.
