Michelle Otero poet

Michelle Otero is a writer, actor, and facilitator, who utilizes creative expression and storytelling as the basis for organizational development and positive social change. She is the author of Malinche's Daughter, an essay collection based on her work with women survivors of domestic violence and sexual assault in Oaxaca, Mexico as a Fulbright Fellow. She is a member of the Macondo Writers' Workshop, and her work has appeared in New Mexico Magazine, Artful Dodge, Brevity, and Puerto del Sol. She writes and performs with Hembras de Pluma, a women-of-color collective of writers and actors that creates and produces original works for stage, and is a co-founder of the newly formed TIASO, a cooperative for community-engaged artists. A tenth-generation New Mexican, she is Creative Director of Valle Encantado, an organization promoting sustainable development initiatives in the Atrisco historic core in Albuquerque.
