

BRIDGE OVER TROUBLED WATER

Words and Music by PAUL SIMON

When you're weary, feelin' small,
when tears are in your eyes, I will dry them all.
I'm on your side, oh, when times get rough,
and friends just can't be found,
like a bridge over troubled water, I will lay me down.
Like a bridge over troubled water, I will lay me down.

When you're down and out,
when you're on the street,
when evening falls so hard, I will comfort you.
I'll take your part, oh, when darkness comes,
and pain is all around,
like a bridge over troubled water, I will lay me down.
Like a bridge over troubled water, I will lay me down.

Sail on silver girl,
sail on by.
Your time has come to shine.
All your dreams are on their way.
See how they shine. Oh, if you need a friend,
I'm sailing right behind,
like a bridge over troubled water, I will ease your mind.
Like a bridge over troubled water, I will ease your mind.

REVEL CLASSICAL BAND

REVEL was formed in 2008 by pianist Carla McElhaney and cellist Joel Beckett to fill an abandoned niche in classical music. Their musical heroes — Beethoven, Schubert, Mozart, Brahms, Rachmaninov, Shostakovich, Piazzolla... (the whole list is extremely long) — would never have recognized the formal (some would say "uptight") classical music scene of the mid- to late 20th century, and frankly, it wasn't doing much for Carla and Joel either. So they established REVEL to re-introduce informal, music-and-conviviality-focused events (they call them "revels") like those in which the historic musicians they admired most would have participated.

In 2010 they were joined by a musical soulmate, violinist Cármelo de los Santos, and they began to collaborate in concert with other favorite musicians. The result has been inspiring. Classical music lovers have found in REVEL a new expression for their passion, and non-classical audiences have awakened to a genre and repertoire far more rich and inspired than they could previously have imagined.
