Renato Rosaldo Poet

Renato Rosaldo is an American cultural anthropologist and the author of The Day of Shelly's Death: The Poetry and Ethnography of Grief. This deeply moving collection of poetry focuses on the shock of his wife Michelle (Shelly) Rosaldo's sudden death in October 1981 after losing her footing and falling some sixty feet from a cliff into a swollen river. He explores not only his own experience of Shelly's death but also the imagined perspectives of many others whose lives intersected with that tragic event. Renato Rosaldo teaches Anthropology at New York University and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.
