chatter music worth talking about SUNDAY

SYBARITE5 is always on the lookout for new tunes and composers that speak with a unique and relevant voice. Outliers is a program of works written by our favorite composers mixed with music from the friends we've made traveling the world performing the music we love. Sybarite5 plays the music of their friends Shawn Conley, Jessica Meyer, Daniel Bernard Roumain, Michael Gilbertson and pairs with the group's favorite works of Armenian folk music, Piazzolla, Pete Seeger, Elgar, and Radiohead.

The Triumvirate (Sue, Linda and Judy) bow before Pamela and Don with love and gratitude for Chatter. Best wishes on this new phase in your lives.

Merimee Moffitt poet

Merimee arrived in New Mexico in a shiny green Chrysler from Portland in 1970 and fell in love with the land, sun, culture-everything northern New Mexico. She is semi-retired and currently co-hosts the only prose open mic in Albuquerque, Duke City Dime Stories (dimestories.org). She performs her poems and teaches workshops and classes in the community. Her poetry appears often in the fabulous reviews and journals in New Mexico such as Malpais Review, Mas Tequila Review, Adobe Walls, and the Santa Fe Literary Review. She received First Honorable Mention in the Times They Were A Changing anthology for her poem "Before the Summer of Love." She has published three chapbooks and her first book, a collection of poems, Making Little Edens.
