A WORD FROM OUR SPONSOR

Collective voices—harmonious and discordant—define a community.

At the heart of Chatter and Chatter Cabaret is a desire to bring us together in wonder and silence to the voices that express a deeper connection.

Regularly, accomplished musicians, minstrels and poets, artists, thinkers, word crafters and teachers share our common desire to listen in a moment of collective recognition. These true community leaders provide the venue and remind us why we are here: to share a vibrant energy and joy with artists who express the sounds and thoughts that go well beyond words.

Positively enchanting, we have a place to go to be inspired and moved.

How fortunate we are to have Chatter continuously defining and refining what is most enriching about our community. Rob Strell
