Jules Nyquist Spoken Word

Jules experiments with sound and form and continues to write poetry on the page and for performance. She founded Jules' Poetry Playhouse in Albuquerque, NM in 2012, where she hosts visiting poets and conducts workshops and classes on poetry, creative writing and the creative process. Jules' two books of poems, Behind the Volcanoes and Appetites (Beatlick Press), were finalists for the NM/AZ Book Awards in 2012 and 2014, respectively. Jules' poems have appeared in 5 AM, Salamander, Malpais Review, Adobe Walls, St. Paul Almanac, Long Islander News, Gray Sparrow, House Organ, Duke City Fix, Café Review and others. She is co-editor of the Poets Speak anthology series with John Roche and edited the volume 2 Hers series in 2017.
