Billy Brown Spoken Word

Billy Brown follows many passions. A poet and poetry event organizer, his monthly Fixed and Free poetry readings celebrated nine years on Thursday, August 24, and will begin its tenth year on September 28. A PhD from Dartmouth, Billy teaches mathematics and statistics at UNM and tutors privately. He enjoys singing tenor in two choruses: Madrigal Singers and the male chorus De Profundis. He frequently contributes delicious food from his catering business, Cuisine del Corazón, to support arts events such as theater openings, poetry readings and concerts, including several years of support for Chatter Sunday, NM Philharmonic and Tricklock Theater. Billy's latest publication, Chatter Poems and Pastries, a collection of pastry recipes loved by Chatter Sunday patrons and poems written during Chatter Sunday performances, is available now. Billy is nearing completion of a 1000+ page collection of the complete poems by his friend, Carol Lewis, who died in February at age 89, entitled Carol Lewis: Shimmering Poet, which should be available by her 90th birthday in January, 2018. Chatter Sunday is the perfect venue for Billy's passions for music, poetry and baking!
