Kat Heatherington poet

Kat Heatherington is a queer ecofeminist poet, sometime artist, pagan, and organic gardener. She has been living in Albuquerque since 1998, when she moved here to earn a Master's in English at UNM. In 2007 she collaborated with a group of three other unrelated adults to buy land in the Rio Grande Valley and form Sunflower River intentional community, sunflowerriver.org. Ten years and many life lessons later, Sunflower River is still going strong, and still providing plenty of material to write poems about. Kat's work primarily addresses the interstices of human relationships and the natural world. She has several self-published chapbooks, available from the author at yarrow@sunflowerriver.org, and one volume of poetry, The Bones of This Land, published Fall 2017 by Swimming with Elephants Publications, available at Barnes & Noble, Amazon.com, or from the author.

Sonata for flute and piano (1956–57)
Francis Poulenc (1899–1963)
