John Barney Spoken Word

High Places a spoken word performance featuring Three High Places by John Luther Adams.

Performed by John Barney, Spoken Word & David Felberg, Violin

John Barney is an artist and poet who recently published two chapbooks entitled Home and Body(Satva). His current body of art work has grown out of his drawings inspired by Chatter, combining images and text to render the magic and energy of a person, place or performance. Currently, he “daylights” as the Leslie Knope of Bernalillo County. He also teaches design and physical planning as an adjunct professor at UNM School of Architecture and Planning. After 15 years in Albuquerque, he has found his own version of a middle place on the verge of mid-life, and his poetry explores questions within this geographical and personal context.

Les Tendres Plaintes (1724)
