Whether it be theatre, film, poetry or drawing silly pictures, Jason Witter has been involved in the local arts scene for the past twenty years. Jason received his MFA in Theatre from UNM in 2004. After writing, directing and acting in numerous theatrical productions and independent films, Jason switched gears in 2015 and began writing and illustrating books of humorous and heartfelt poems for kids of all ages. It started with The Tiniest Vampire (and other silly things), and Jason has since followed this up with Monsters Eating Ice Cream and Dinosaurs at the Dentist. Jason has also adapted and illustrated various classics (such as Hamlet and The Odyssey) in his comical “Classics (kind of)” series. “There are so many ways to tell stories and express ourselves. I love the journey. I truly believe that the arts are the cornerstone of humanity, and I am happy to contribute even the smallest segment of sand to that stone!”
