

Emanuele Arciuli solo piano

Emanuele Arciuli has established himself as one of the most original and interesting performers on today's classical music scene. His repertoire ranges from Bach to contemporary music, with a strong affinity for composers from the United States. Emanuele's most recent release Walk in Beauty, a 2cd box for Innova, features music composed for him by such musicians as John Luther Adams, Michael Daugherty, Kyle Gann, and Martin Bresnick, as well Native American piano music. He has collaborated with internationally renowned orchestras such as the Saint Paul Chamber, Saint Petersburg Philharmonic, Orquestra Sinfônica Brasileira, RAI National Symphony, Indianapolis Symphony, Rotterdam Philharmonic, Brussels Philharmonic and many others. From 2017-18 he teaches Contemporary Piano Music at Accademia di Pinerolo. Emanuele is a professor at the Conservatory in Bari and a frequent guest professor at several American universities.
