Mari Simbaña Spoken Word

Mari Simbaña was born in Quito, Ecuador and grew up in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Within the areas of migration, local communities, and quotidian life, her writing explores such themes as resilience, belonging, and love. She also works in Land Use Planning, cooks, and lives with her family near the Rio Grande river. A believer in community economics and a supporter of small agricultural, she has been affiliated with Rio Grande Community Farm, Rio Grande Community Development Corporation, Santa Fe Farmer's Market, and currently serves on the Advisory Committee of the American Friends Service Committee–New Mexico program. Mari holds a B.A. in International Relations from Mt. Holyoke College and an M.A. in Community and Regional Planning from the University of New Mexico.
