Bill Nevins Spoken Word

Bill Nevins, a Gold Star parent, writes poetry from the Albuquerque and Black Lake/Angel Fire New Mexico homes he shares with musician-educator, Jeannie Allen, and from places he visits, which include a recent extended stay in Merida and Sisal, Yucatan, Mexico, where he met the bilingual poet Fer de la Cruz, who translated one of Bill's poems into Spanish. Bill's collection, Heartbreak Ridge and Other Poems, is published by Swimming With Elephants Publications, available at local bookstores and on Amazon.com. He plans a second collection to be published later in 2019. A retired UNM and CNM teacher, Bill writes cultural journalism for several national magazines including Trend of Santa Fe and No Depression. He is profiled in the feature documentary film Committing Poetry in Times of War. He also organizes the periodic Resolana community artists gatherings in Albuquerque—next one is April 26. Bill is a member of the New Mexico State Poetry Society and reads at Taos SOMOS and Albuquerque's Voices of the Barrio and Fixed & Free.

HELLO CHATTER^{PHILES}

We are looking for new Chatter volunteers.

Volunteers pass out programs, greet people at the front door, check people in, sell tickets, and greet people at the coffee/treat table. Dates are flexible. There are no volunteer duties during the performance, so you can enjoy the music.

If interested, please talk to Beth Brockway at the ticket sales table.
