chatter music worth talking about SUNDAY

Summa for String Quartet (1977)

Arvo Pärt (b. 1935)

Laetitia Liora León Spoken Word

Laetitia Liora León has traveled to the heart of things on many different roads. She was a journalist at newspapers around the country for 15 years. She also taught poetry and speech writing at the International Rescue Committee in New York City to children who were refugees of the wars in Sierra Leone, Liberia, Bosnia, Albania and Rwanda. While there, she interviewed children about their war experiences and taught them how to write speeches, which the children then presented to the United Nations. Laetitia also has worked for community nonprofits in the Bronx. She's been a teaching artist for the Santa Fe Arts Commission, for which she taught poetry classes in public schools. Originally from El Paso, Texas, Laetitia has an MFA in creative writing from Sarah Lawrence College. Her poems have been published in the literary journals Hotel Amerika and BorderSenses as well as in various anthologies.

Celebration of Silence :: Two Minutes
