About Dr. Sun Yat-sen by Huang Ruo :: American Premiere

One of the most enthralling historical operas, Dr. Sun Yat-sen depicts the epic struggle to overthrow China's ancient monarchy and build a modern national identity for one of the world's oldest civilizations.

The acclaimed tenor Warren Mok recreates the title role. The conductor is the exciting Carolyn Kuan, in demand with opera and ballet companies throughout the world.

Performances on July 26 and 30, August 8 and 14. A limited number of seats remain at SantaFeOpera.org

Today's performance is sponsored by Carol Mitchell, born in 1944, to her mom's raspy recording of Beethoven's 6th Symphony. She's been 'doing' music ever since and wants to celebrate with all other '44ers here (who will admit it) and to dedicate the morning to the Chatter Varsity, the next generation of rising musicians who have performed at Chatter recently. 1944–2014, what's past is merely prologue, music endures.
