Bob Kanegis Spoken Word

Bob Kanegis explores the intersection of myth and traditional folk and fairy tales with contemporary issues of family, culture, and politics. He performs and teaches storytelling in schools and libraries nationwide, and works with adults to help them find craft and tell their most important stories. Bob's many community collaborations have included work with United Nations diplomats, migrant farm worker families, incarcerated teens, and multi-year residencies at the Cochiti and Santo Domingo schools. His "focused meanders" on Living a Storied Life can be found on his blog, www.storytellerscampfire.com. His essay "Beginners Peace" can be found in the recently published anthology Speak Peace: Words of Wisdom, Work and Wonder (Parkhurst Brothers Publishers, 2019).
