Jennifer Frank Poet

Jennifer Frank's poems have been published in journals and anthologies, including Kalliope, Phoebe, the Harwood Anthology, Looking Back to Place and Adobe Walls, and at several websites. She has worked on multiple projects responding to works of art and collaborating with other artists, including Cross-Pollination, a collaboration with artist Becky Holtzman, which was exhibited at the Harwood Art Center in 2004. She has been featured at numerous venues and occasionally conducts poetry workshops. Her work in sustainability, as co-owner of Concept Green, informs and is inspired by many themes in her poetry. She was a featured poet in last October's Double Tongue::Theme and Variation project at Sunday Chatter and lives in Albuquerque, NM, with her husband and son.
