Holds Ghosts String Quintet World Premiere James T Shields

"I've always been extremely fond of the string quintets of Mozart and Brahms, and so when the idea came up for me to compose a work to accompany Brahms' great Quintet in G, I jumped at the opportunity. I also felt that I had more to say through the musical language I had been developing for Of Observation and Experience in 2010, and this felt like the perfect opportunity to continue working with those sounds. While the composition is not based on any extra musical narrative, I was preoccupied with how we build and maintain memories throughout our life, and the process of sometimes letting those memories fade, hence the title."

:: James T Shields

Kevin R Elder Actor

Kevin R Elder, Albuquerque based dramatic writer, will read excerpts from a few of his recent musings explored through both short fiction and poetry. His work is often relayed through the voices of disenchanting characters, who seek to uncover rare moments of human connection in an otherwise broken existence. Elder's writing has been called "dark and melancholic, with a quirky sense of gallows humor". Sunday's reading will include works in progress that have not yet been heard outside of private readings and events. Elder is Artistic Director of ABQ based Tricklock Company, and an MFA candidate in the Dramatic Writing program at the University of New Mexico.
