Today's featured artist

Ruth Cohen

I've been a painter since 1989 and printmaker since 1997. Through painting and printmaking I record, interpret and enhance my visual, emotional and spiritual awareness. The works include still life, landscape, abstract paintings and prints. My images are greatly influenced by feminism, my strong commitment to personal and universal healing, and my respect for all individuals, nature, and the universe. I reflect joy and passion for travel, adventure, nature, community and home through emotional and visual responses to a place or event.
