In the opera, children overcome the bully Brundibár, in order to provide needed milk for their mother. The opera became beloved (being performed 55 times) in the Theresienstadt concentration camp, and its theme of good against evil was reassuring to the prisoners. To them, the evil organ grinder (Brundibár) was Hitler and his defeat symbolized hope.

This performance by arrangement with Bote & Bock Berlin and Boosey & Hawkes, Inc.

Performance of Brundibár is supported by grants from New Mexico Arts, the National Endowment for the Arts and the City of Albuquerque's Urban Enhancement Trust Fund. Thank you!

There is a fully-staged performance of Brundibár with Chatter, A Chamber Ensemble on Sat Nov 6 at 2pm UNM Fine Arts Center Lobby
