Franz Liszt (1911–1886)

Elias-Axel Pettersson, piano

Born in Sweden and raised in New Mexico, Mr. Pettersson began playing piano and violin at an early age. He received his B.A. in music (and minor in biology) at the University of Rochester; concurrently, he studied piano with Douglas Humphreys and violin with Guillaume Tardif at the Eastman School of Music. Pettersson received his M.M. from the University of Maryland, College Park, as a student of Larissa Dedova, and he is currently a doctoral candidate at the Université de Montréal as a student of Paul Stewart.

Mr. Pettersson is a laureate of several competitions, including the 21st International Young Artist Piano Competition, the 2005 Audio Express Recording Competition, and the 8th Los Angeles Franz Liszt International Piano Competition. He is a Mason & Hamlin Artist.

Ralph Berkowitz (former dean Tanglewood Music Festival) has said, “Elias-Axel Pettersson is one of those rare musicians who can project his ideas from the piano directly into the hearts and minds of his audience. He possesses formidable technique and the marks of a genuine artist.”

Special Note: In the past weeks, audience members have generously volunteered to bring homemade baked goods on Sunday mornings. In the spirit of the Church of Beethoven, we accept your offers and look forward to happy munching!

In order to coordinate so that we won't have too much or nothing, Billy Brown has offered to design a schedule for us. If you'd like to participate, contact him at 505-401-8139 or e-mail welbert53@aol.com to get on the schedule. Please don't feel that the schedule is a binding agreement in case something interrupts your plans. We like to be flexible at CoB. Again, to those of you who participate in the baking, the entire Church of Beethoven community thanks you.

*Today's Church of Beethoven is sponsored by Janet Braziel and Dr Robert Lynn in memory of Jack MacGregor Lynn I

Help sustain the CoB by honoring, celebrating or memorializing something or someone dear to you . . . become a Day Sponsor.
