CELEBRATION OF SILENCE · TWO MINUTES

John Clubbe

Cultural historian John Clubbe, a retired professor of English literature, reads and discusses a passage from Ranier Maria Rilke's The Notebooks of Malte Laurids Brigge, which he finds to be a profound celebration of Beethoven's genius. Though written in prose, this meditation on Beethoven draws on Rilke's brilliant command of poetic expression. Professor Clubbe is writing a book on Beethoven and has been a pre-concert lecturer on Beethoven at the Santa Fe Symphony and Chorus. He will provide copies of Rilke's words, both in German and English, to audience members.

This week's performance is sponsored by Laura. Happy holidays and a big thank you to our wonderful Church of Beethoven volunteers. It wouldn't happen without you!
