Loren Niemi Spoken Word

Loren Niemi is an innovative storyteller with 42 years of performing, teaching and writing about stories that matter. His work has been called "post-modern," "with a dark beauty of language that is not ashamed of poetry." His collection of ghost stories What Haunts Us won a 2020 Midwest Book Award. Other publications include The New Book of Plots and Point of View and the Emotional Arc of Stories and the critically acclaimed, Inviting the Wolf In: Thinking About Difficult Stories co-authored with Elizabeth Ellis. In 2016 he received the National Storytelling Network's Lifetime Achievement Award. For more info: www.lorenNiemistories.com
