Cat Reece Spoken Word

Cat Camille balances her passion for poetry and writing with her high school teaching career, where she strives to spread a love of the written word to the next generation of burgeoning writers. She has been a long-time desert dweller of New Mexico, and tries to blend the beauty and real magic of her surroundings with the humor she sees in all life. Cat is a proud UNM alumna, and has been published in The Manzano Mountain Review and has several short stories with Limitless Publications in several genres. She has also done some editing work, the most recent being a historical non-fiction book recounting all the presidential elections in US History.

What does becoming a Day Sponsor really mean?
It means you 'adopt' a day and a program!
It's your opportunity to honor, acknowledge, or Remember someone, or an occasion
With beautiful music and spoken words.
It means you do this with a written acknowledgement
On that day's program.
It means you get two free tickets, and Reserved seating.
Also, some Chatter merch.
And you are also giving a gift to Chatter.

And how do you do this?
You make a donation (see the Chatter website),
And then
We make it happen!
(Email barblevton@gmail.com with any questions,
and to see if your date is available.)
