Carlos Contreras Spoken Word

Carlos Contreras is a long time community servant and organizer. A poet, artist, father, educator, and student—Contreras was a member of the Kellogg Foundation’s Inaugural class of Community Leadership Network Fellows. Having served as the Director of Marketing for the City of Albuquerque and Mayor Tim Keller, Contreras is also a nationally awarded performance poet, published author, and featured visual artist in the Albuquerque Museum’s permanent collection “Common Ground”—his life’s work has centered around the creation of space and time for communities of all kinds.

With a Bachelor’s in English from the University of New Mexico, and a background of teaching both at the collegiate and high school level here in New Mexico—Contreras is committed to the possibility and potential that people in THIS place provide. A champion of the spirit of Albuquerque and New Mexico, to the rest of the country and world—Contreras prides himself most on being a father to an amazing toddler.
