Jasmine Cuffee Spoken Word

Jasmine Sena y Cuffee is said to have mysterious powers that will send you on an exhilarating journey with a simple word and turn of phrase. Lyrical. Sincere. Psychedelic, if you give her some time to get comfortable. A Spoken Word artist and performer at heart, she's represented Albuquerque at Poetry Slams across the county as Home City Rep and Champion since she was 17. She has been published in numerous anthologies and self-published her first chap-book Sunshine and Rapture in 2007. She also had the great honor of hosting the 8th Annual 2015 Women of the World Poetry Slam Championship, where 70 plus women from around the country and beyond fought with words for 4 days all over downtown Albuquerque. Her offering to Goddess! Community Organizer, Activist, and current USPS employee, Jazz has a wide range of skills, talents and abilities which she loves to share. She has been called many things throughout her life and the ones she is most proud of are Rabble Rouser, Instigator, Catalyst, and Bruja—which are pretty much all the same thing.
