music
worth
talking about

Tango Étude No. 3 for clarinet (1987) Astor Piazzolla (1921–1992)

Vocalise for clarinet and piano (1915) Sergei Rachmaninoff (1873–1943)

Larry Goodell Spoken Word

Larry Goodell was born in Roswell, studied at USC and UNM, and has spent most of his life in Placitas. He started his own performance poetry in the 60's, New Mexico style. He has collaborated with artists, taught and started workshops. He emphasizes performance but promotes the poet as publisher with his own Duende Press which he founded in 1963. His writing often generates from gardening, from word-play, from the socio-political and from his love and long relationship with Lenore Goodell. See <http://www.larrygoodell.com/> for his books and links to his online work. His recordings of poets and some of his own music are at duende.bandcamp.com. His books are available from Amazon Books or Bookworks on Rio Grande.
