Elizabeth Cohen Spoken Word

Elizabeth Cohen is a poet and writer who grew up in the Village of Los Ranchos, then moved away for forty years, returning last January to Albuquerque, the only place she ever felt truly at home. She has an MFA in poetry from Columbia University and taught creative writing in the State University of New York system for the last 15 years. A career journalist, she has written for The New York Times, New York Post, Rolling Stone and other national publications. She is the author of The Family on Beartown Road, a memoir, The Hypothetical Girl, a collection of short stories, and six books of poetry, most recently Martini Tattoo, among other books. But she is mostly known as Ava's mom and the human belonging to Layla, a half lab, half beagle who is very adept and catching and retrieving tennis balls.
