Poème Symphonique for 100 metronomes (1962) György Ligeti (1923–2006)

Natachee Momaday Gray Spoken Word

Natachee Momaday Gray is a Santa Fe native and narradora indígena. Her work focuses on the melding of art and myth, ancestry and nostalgia, food and prayer, glamour, frivolity and the passage of time. She comes from a long lineage of storytellers and honors this tradition by bringing a charm and seduction to stories overlooked and undertold. Moving between English, Spanish, and the blood memory of the Plains people, she addresses her boundless identity, often using the alias Tatja Lucia. She has released her first collection of poetry, titled Silver Box, through Finishing Line Press. She often performs accompanied by her husband, musician Kyle Perkins.
