Gayle Lauradunn Spoken Word

Gayle Lauradunn's collection Reaching for Air was Finalist for Best First Book of Poetry (Texas Institute of Letters). Her book-length persona poem ALL THE WILD AND HOLY: A Life of Eunice Williams, 1696–1785 won the National Poetry Book Award (North Street Books). The Geography of Absence, her third book, appeared in October 2022. Her story-telling poems have appeared in such journals as Puerto del Sol, 200 New Mexico Poems, Blueline, Connecticut River Review, Zone 3, Tsunami, San Pedro River Review Sin Fronteras/Writers Without Borders, and numerous national and international anthologies. Some of her poems have been adapted for the stage, while others have been included in art gallery exhibits. Three poems were included in an exhibition at the University of Puget Sound, "Dirt: Scientists, Artists, and Writers Reflect on Soil and Our Environment." She served on the selection committees that chose Albuquerque's first two Poet Laureates. From 2015–17 she chaired the Albuquerque chapter of the New Mexico State Poetry Society. In 1974 she was co-organizer of the First National Women's Multicultural Poetry Festival, University of Massachusetts-Amherst, a week-long event with 20 poets reading to audiences of 200–300 from around the country.
