Carlos Contreras Spoken Word

Carlos Contreras is a poet, painter, father, educator, and student. Contreras was a member of the Kellogg Foundation's Inaugural class of Community Leadership Network Fellows, and served as the Director of Marketing for the City of Albuquerque and Mayor Tim Keller. Contreras is also a nationally awarded performance poet, published author, and featured visual artist in the Albuquerque Museum's permanent collection "Common Ground." His life's work has centered around the creation of space and time for communities of all kinds. He is co-founder of Art on the Rio, a virtual space for art and artists to thrive, and a partnership opportunity for Albuquerque's small business community. This was in part a project grown out of his sole proprietorship Immastar Productions, a 20yr old consultancy focused on catalyzing situations with creative people, approaches, and solutions. Contreras is about connections: people to people, institutions to each other, and his city of Albuquerque, to the world.
