V. B. Price is an American poet, human rights and environmental columnist, editor, reporter, publisher, and teacher. He has authored and edited twenty titles in addition to prodigious as-yet-unpublished works. His weekly column about politics, culture, human rights, and the environment, now called the Mercury Messenger, has run continuously in various iterations since 1971. He has taught for decades in the University of New Mexico's School of Architecture and Planning and Honors College. Price's poetry and prose have appeared in more than eighty national and international periodicals since 1962. He served as architecture editor of Artspace magazine of Albuquerque and Los Angeles, is the former editor of New Mexico Magazine, was city editor of The New Mexico Independent, and was the founding editor of the late Century Magazine.
