Margaret Randall Spoken Word

Poet, independent scholar, photographer, translator, and social activist Margaret Randall was born in New York City and grew up in New Mexico. Taking an active part in the Mexican student movement of 1968 and then living in Cuba for eleven years and Sandinista Nicaragua for four, Randall returned to the United States in 1984, only to face deportation when the government declared her writings "against the good order and happiness of the United States." With the support of many, she won her case in 1989. Randall is the author of more than two hundred books, including Che on My Mind (2014), Time's Language: Selected Poems 1959-2018, and I Never Left Home: Poet, Feminist, Revolutionary (2020). She has received the Poet of Two Hemispheres award from Poesía en Paralelo Cero, Quito, Ecuador, AWP's George Garrett Award, Albuquerque's Creative Bravo Award, and an Honorary Doctorate from the University of New Mexico, among other recognitions.
