Erica Photiades Spoken Word

Erica Photiades grew up in Detroit, Michigan. She holds degrees in Music Education from Michigan State University (BA) and Baylor University (MA). She is a violinist and an orchestra director for Albuquerque Public Schools. She has always loved writing short stories and poetry and enjoys exploring the intersections between music, teaching and an ever-changing world. In April 2024, one of her poems was selected by the New Mexico Poet Laureate as a winner in the New Mexico Department of Cultural Affairs Ekphrastic Poetry Contest.
