Peter Anderson Spoken Word

Peter Anderson's books include Riding the Wheel, a lyrical almanac from the edge of the San Luis Valley; Reading Colorado: A Literary Road Guide; Heading Home, flash prose and prose poems exploring rural life and the modern day eccentricities of the American West; and First Church of the Higher Elevations, a collection of essays on wildness, mountain places, and the life of the spirit. He lives on the western slope of the Sangre de Cristos in southern Colorado where he launched the Crestone Poetry Festival, an annual gathering of southwestern poets.
