Peter Anderson Spoken Word

Peter Anderson's books include Riding the Wheel, a collection of prose poems and haiku that celebrates the natural world on the edge of the Sangre de Cristos; Reading Colorado, an anthology of place-based writings which won a 2024 Colorado Book Award; Heading Home— Field Notes, a collection of flash prose and prose poems exploring rural life and the modern day eccentricities of the American West; and First Church of the Higher Elevations, a collection of essays on wildness, mountain places, and the life of the spirit. He lives on the western slope of the Sangre de Cristos where he launched the Crestone Poetry Festival, an annual gathering of Southwestern poets.
