Ken Hada Spoken Word

Ken Hada lives in the Crosstimbers Section of rural Oklahoma. Much of his writing concerns questions of spirituality and the human experience within Nature. His latest collection is Nexus (Turning Plow Press, 2026). His work has been awarded by the National Western Heritage Museum, the Western Writers of America, The South Central Modern Language Association Prize for Poetry, and the Oklahoma Center for the Book. Ken enjoys traveling to New Mexico, and this is his third time reading at Chatter.

Celebration of Silence :: Two Minutes

Serenade No. 12 for Winds in C minor (1782)

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756–1791)

- I Allegro
- II Andante
- III Menuetto (in canone)
- IV Allegro

Today's concert is dedicated to the memory of Clayton Karkosh, Professor Emeritus UNM Theatre & Dance. Since the mid-1960's, Clayton inspired and influenced the lives of many people his path crossed. For over 40 years, he spent summers in Argyle, Nova Scotia – a distant community that will miss him.
