Carolyn Meyer Spoken Word

Carolyn Meyer, author of sixty books for children and young adults before reinventing herself as a humorist and performer, has traveled to a dozen cities, from London to Honolulu, as a storyteller with The Moth. She has written and performed three solo shows in Albuquerque—"Don't Call Me Young Lady!" in 2019, "The Old White Lady Tells It: The Making and Unmaking of a Racist" in 2020, and "Motherhood. What A Bitch!" in 2024. The recently completed manuscript of "Memoirs of An Old White Lady" is currently languishing on the desk of her agent in New York. To stay out of trouble—or maybe stir some up—she has recently established a presence on Substack, and she would be delighted if you'd subscribe (it's free).
