Alicia Elkort Spoken Word

Alicia Elkort returned to New Mexico, the place of her birth, in 2020, after working many years in the entertainment biz, in finance. Her third book of poetry, Bitterroot, won the Two Sylvias Press Wilder Book Prize, published 2026. She published her first book A Map of Every Undoing in 2022 with Stillhouse Press of George Mason University, after winning their book contest. Her chapbook Disturb the Bones was published in 2025 with Dancing Girl Press. Alicia's poetry has been nominated several times for the Pushcart, Best of the Net, and the Orison Anthology, and her work appears in numerous journals and anthologies. To return the favor, she reads for Tinderbox Poetry Journal where she also writes reviews. In the between times, she can be found hiking in the mountains and, at other times, fiddling with her oil paints.

Celebration of Silence :: Two Minutes

Piano Quintet in G minor, op.57 (1872)
Dmitri Shostakovich (1906–1975)

- I Allegro moderato
- II Adagio molto
- III Menuetto scherzando
- IV Rondo Finale. Allegro moderato ma energico quasi Marcia

Today's performance is in loving memory of Erwin "Chuck" Grant, who was a wonderful dad and had a deep appreciation for classical music and opera.
